

$500,000 Blaze Kills 2 Firemen

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — One fireman still was missing following a $500,000 recreation center blaze that killed a fire captain and his aide.

Six other firemen and two waitresses were overcome by smoke, but were not injured seriously. About 185 other persons, patrons and employes, fled unharmed.

Dead after the fire were Capt. Joseph Kenneth Buren, 50, and Sgt. Jesse P. Wilson, 46.

The gutted Parkmoor recreation center was being searched for Fireman Riley Pryor, unaccounted for since the blaze.
