How to Apply for Death Benefits

Application Instructions for PSOB Death Benefits:

Welcome to the Bureau of Justice Assistance's Public Safety Officers' Benefits Program online application.

The PSOB Office extends its condolences on the death of your fallen colleague or loved one. This online system has been designed with you in mind, to impose the least possible burden while providing the PSOB Office with the information required to file your application.

The PSOB Death Benefits Application consists of two parts, Part A and Part B. Part A is completed by the Applicant or Authorized Representative, Part B is completed by the Employing Agency. Parts A and B, and all required supporting documents listed in the custom checklist must be uploaded before the application can be considered complete.

Based on the responses provided in your application, a customized checklist of required documents will be generated. The documents listed in the custom checklist must be uploaded before the application can be considered complete.

You can review a general list of required documents for filing a death benefit claim, understanding the documents will vary based on each officer's situation. You will be prompted to upload the minimally necessary documentation before completing your application.

How to Apply:

Applicants – Enter Part A: Provide answers to the application questions and attach (upload) supporting documentation as instructed. When you submit Part A, you will see if the Officer's Public Safety Agency has completed Part B. If the Public Safety Agency has not completed Part B of the application, please contact the agency point of contact to follow up.

Part A – Applicant ▶

Agency User – Enter Part B: Provide information about the Officer and Agency and attach supporting documentation as instructed. If you are also entering information on behalf of an applicant, please enter Part A after completing Part B.

Part B – Agency ▶

The BJA PSOB Office is honored to review the nearly 900 claims submitted each year on behalf of America's fallen and catastrophically disabled public safety heroes and their loved ones.

Hierarchy of Beneficiaries

1) Officer's Surviving Spouse and Minor Child(ren)

A Minor Child is defined as a Child of the Officer who was less than 18 years of age at the time of the Officer's fatal injury, or a Child who was between the ages of 19-22 at the time of the Officer's fatal injury in addition to being a full-time student at the time of the Officer's fatal injury. If the Officer has a Surviving Spouse and no Minor Children, the spouse receives 100% of the benefit; if the Officer has a Surviving Spouse and a Child or Children, the Spouse receives 50% of the benefit, while the Children receive the remaining 50% of the benefit in equal shares. If the Officer has no Surviving Spouse or Minor Children, the next eligible beneficiary on the benefits hierarchy would be the:

2) PSOB Designee on file with the Agency at the time of the Officer's death

The PSOB Designee on file with the Agency at the time of the Officer's death is the beneficiary for PSOB benefits that was specifically designated by the Officer prior to his or her fatal injury, if such a designation was made, and which was on file with the Agency at the time of the Officer's fatal injury. If there was such a designation, a copy of the written designation that was on file with the Officer's Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury must be provided. If the Officer has no Surviving Spouse or Minor Children, and had no PSOB Designee on file with the Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury, the next eligible beneficiary on the benefits hierarchy would be the:

3) Life Insurance Designee on file with the Agency at the time of the Officer's death

The Life Insurance Designee on file with the Agency at the time of the Officer's death is the Life Insurance Beneficiary that was specifically designated by the Officer prior to his or her fatal injury, if such a designation was made, and which was the most recently executed designation on file with the Agency at the time of the Officer's fatal injury. If there was such a designation, a copy of the written designation and policy that was on file with the Officer's Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury must be provided. If the Officer has no Surviving Spouse or Minor Children, and had no PSOB Designee on file with the Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury, as well as no Life Insurance Designee on file with the Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury, the next eligible beneficiary on the benefits hierarchy would be the:

4) Officer's Surviving Parents

If the Officer has one Surviving Parent, the Surviving Parent receives 100% of the benefit; if the Officer has more than one Surviving Parent, each Parent receives the benefit in equal shares. If the Officer has no Surviving Spouse or Minor Children, and had no PSOB Designee on file with the Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury, as well as no Life Insurance Designee on file with the Agency at the time of his or her fatal injury, and also had no Surviving Parents, the next and final eligible beneficiary on the benefits hierarchy would be the:

5) Officer's Surviving Adult Child(ren)

An Adult Child is defined as a Child of the Officer that does not qualify as a Minor Child due to age.
