NATIONAL FALLEN FIREFIGHTERS MEMORIAL WEEKEND WILL HONOR AND REMEMBER 226 FIREFIGHTERS Eight Mississippi Fallen Firefighters Among Those Being Honored on May 4-5, 2024

EMMITSBURG, Md. – The National Fallen Firefighters Foundation (NFFF) will host the 43rd National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Weekend (Memorial Weekend) on May 4-5, 2024 in Emmitsburg, Maryland. This year's national tribute will honor 89 firefighters who died in the line of duty in 2023 and 137 firefighters who died in previous years. The honorees will include the following Mississippi firefighters:

Firefighter Philip Allan, age 49, of the Seminary Volunteer Fire Department, received a page for a rollover accident on 5/17/23. He arrived on scene and reported that he was checking for injuries. As he was crossing the highway, he was struck by a vehicle. He was treated on site by EMS and transported in critical condition to the local hospital where he died from his injuries that afternoon.

Fire Chief Wayne Doyle, age 62, of the Lowndes County Emergency Services Volunteer Fire District, died on 2/8/2022 due to complications of COVID-19.

District Chief Marshall "Mark" Hilley, age 53, of the Gulfport Fire Department, died on 9/1/2021 due to complications of COVID-19.

Firefighter Clint Jacobs, age 46, of the Wiggins Fire Department, died on 9/5/2021 due to complications of COVID-19.

Driver/Engineer Kenneth Rainey, age 51, of the Bridgetown Fire Department, died on 12/14/2020 due to complications of COVID-19.

Captain Guandes Smith, age 28, of the Sardis Volunteer Fire Department, died on 2/8/2021 from complications of COVID-19.

Captain Lee Tatum, age 66, of the Greenleaf Volunteer Fire Department, died on 3/25/2021 from complications of COVID-19.

Assistant Chief Andrew Whittle, age 58, of the District One Volunteer Fire Department, died on 10/7/2021 due to complications of COVID-19.

Detailed information about each of the 226 firefighters being memorialized can be found on the 2024 Roll of Honor.

“National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Weekend is a time for our nation to pause and reflect on the heroic efforts and selfless service of the fallen firefighters we are paying tribute to this year,” said NFFF CEO Victor Stagnaro. “We will always remember the bravery, commitment, and sacrifices of each of these 226 heroes—and their families.”

There are two events open to the public at the National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Park on the grounds of the National Emergency Training Center (NETC) during Memorial Weekend.

- The National Fallen Firefighters Candlelight Service is on May 4 at 7:30 pm ET and will be hosted by Fire Captain Garon Mosby of the St. Louis Fire Department.
- The National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service is on May 5 at 10:00 am ET and will be hosted by actor Jeremy Holm.

Fire service and government leaders are scheduled to address the thousands of attendees at the Memorial Service on Sunday, May 5. The NFFF will live stream both events on the NFFF’s website \(firehero.org\), YouTube channel, and Facebook page.

There are additional events during Memorial Weekend provided exclusively for the families and fire departments of honored firefighters. These include small group sessions and other activities throughout Friday and Saturday; they are open to the families and coworkers of newly honored and previously honored firefighters.

Media Information

Members of the media who plan to attend Memorial Weekend are asked to RSVP in advance to gain access to the NETC.

Obtain credentials here: For the Media - National Fallen Firefighters Foundation \(firehero.org\).

How Communities Can Participate

Those not attending Memorial Weekend in person can also pay tribute to this year's honored firefighters. All can participate in Light the Night for Fallen Firefighters (May 1 – 5) by lighting their homes, businesses, landmarks, or fire departments with red lights. Other ways to remember include Bells Across America, Sound the Sirens, and by signing a virtual Remembrance Banner.

In addition, the American flag will be lowered to half-staff on all Federal buildings on Sunday, May 5. The public is also encouraged to lower their American flags that day to recognize the men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice.

Public Access And Parking

Public parking for Memorial Weekend is at Liberty Mountain Resort (78 Country Club Trail, Fairfield, PA). Shuttles from Liberty Mountain Resort will begin at 3:30 pm on Saturday, May 4 for the Candlelight Service and at 7:30 am on Sunday, May 5 for the Memorial Service.

Memorial Weekend is supported by individual and corporate donors, a grant from the Department of Justice's Bureau of Justice Assistance, and in partnership with the U.S. Fire Administration, a component of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL FALLEN FIREFIGHTERS FOUNDATION (NFFF)

The United States Congress created the NFFF to lead a nationwide effort to honor America's fallen firefighters. The mission is to honor America's fallen fire heroes; support their families, colleagues, and organizations; and work to reduce preventable firefighter death and injury. The National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Park includes the National Fallen Firefighters Monument, the National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Chapel, a brick Walk of Honor, a September 11th memorial sculpture, and the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation Bell of Remembrance. Information about the NFFF and the Memorial Park can be found here.
